

input

removes first and last characters from string

function

output

('eloquent'), 'loquen');

1. set function to removeChar with parameters/argument of str

2. return the parameter with method slice.... then with the, two params in slice, use the first param to grab the first letter from the string and the second parameter to grab the first letter from the back of the string.